

FORGING A VISION for SIMSBURY:

Balancing Conservation & Development

Thursday, January 26, 7:30 pm
Eno Memorial Hall
754 Hopmeadow, Simsbury

MODERATOR: Tom Condon is a columnist & editorial writer for The Hartford Courant.

SPEAKERS:

Eric Hammerling, the Executive Director of the Farmington River Watershed Association, will show how sprawl affects our water quality.

David Leff, the Deputy Commissioner of the CT Dept. of Environmental Protection, will speak on the importance of open space.

Susan Merrow, a former six term First Selectman of East Haddam, will explain the economics of land preservation.

FREE ADMISSION

Refreshments & conversation following
Questions welcomed

snow date: February 7

sponsored by

KEEP THE WOODS

information: keepthewoods.org

FORGING A VISION for SIMSBURY:

Balancing Conservation & Development

Thursday, January 26, 7:30 pm
Eno Memorial Hall
754 Hopmeadow, Simsbury

MODERATOR: Tom Condon is a columnist & editorial writer for The Hartford Courant.

SPEAKERS:

Eric Hammerling, the Executive Director of the Farmington River Watershed Association, will show how sprawl affects our water quality.

David Leff, the Deputy Commissioner of the CT Dept. of Environmental Protection, will speak on the importance of open space.

Susan Merrow, a former six term First Selectman of East Haddam, will explain the economics of land preservation.

FREE ADMISSION

Refreshments & conversation following
Questions welcomed

snow date: February 7

sponsored by

KEEP THE WOODS

information: keepthewoods.org

